

4.00 credits

30.0 h

Q2

Teacher(s)	Dauchy Serge ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Bruxelles Saint-Louis
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : “The understanding of the present through the knowledge of the past”. Provide students with an overview of key aspects of the history of institutions and (public) law in the medieval and modern Occident, from the fifth century, and more specifically from the eleventh to the eighteenth century, that can inform them but also enable them to understand the evolution of concepts that will be taught in the contemporary law course.

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)