GERM2M1 - Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

The challenges which students on the [Master \[60\] in Modern Languages and Literatures : German, Dutch and English](#) prepares for are those of becoming an expert in two foreign languages, acquainted with the analysis of linguistic and literary discourse and capable of continuing their training into other degrees.

At the end of their course, students on the [Master \[60\] in Modern Languages and Literatures : German, Dutch and English](#), will demonstrate expertise in the two foreign languages studied. This expertise relates to very high level communication competencies, characterised by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages as those of the “advanced user, C1”. Additionally, students will have been introduced to a scientific approach to linguistics and literature.

Their in-depth knowledge of the modern languages and literatures they enrol in will enable them to continue their education with a view to obtaining, for example, the Teacher Training Certificate \(upper secondary education\) - Modern Languages and Literatures : German, Dutch and English or to direct themselves towards other types of training in connected fields such as communication, journalism, European studies, etc.

This qualification is of particular interest to persons who already hold another master qualification.
