Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams (<https://uclouvain.be/fr/decouvrir/rgee.html>). More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".

An evaluation of the the knowledge acquired is carried out at the end of each part of the programme. In addition, the candidate will write a thesis and/or an article and have it published in a specialised journal. Further to the application of the Royal Decree of 16 March, 1999, at the end of the first two years of training, the candidate will receive an attestation proving that he has successfully accomplished a specific university training course.

Upon fulfilment of the above-described training requirements, the teaching committee will award the academic title in Obstetric-Gynecology Medecine.

This title does not replace official recognition by the ministerial validation committee. It attests to the successful completion
