Introduction

URO2MC - Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

This complementary master's programme aims to prepare doctors to become officially recognised holders of the specific professional title of Specialist Doctor in Urology (Ministerial Decree of 18.07.1979, published on 07.08.1979).

Programme structure

The training course includes full time apprenticeships in recognised services and teaching centres. It lasts for at least six years, full-time, including two years of foundation studies and four years of higher studies. The apprenticeship project established by the university promoter must be approved by the ministerial validation committee for the speciality. These periods of practical training include being on call.

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams (<https://uclouvain.be/fr/decouvrir/rgee.html>). More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".

Further to the application of the Royal Decree of 16 March, 1999, at the end of the first two years of training, the candidate will receive an attestation proving that he has successfully accomplished a specific university training course. Annual evaluation in the context of the inter-university courses on Urology. The final evaluation will be taken into consideration for the recognition of specialists by the Ministerial Validation Committee. It also involves an annual communication to a congress on Urology, a publication in an Urological journal and an end of course thesis. Upon fulfilment of the above-described training requirements, the teaching committee will award the academic title in Urology.

This title does not replace official recognition by the ministerial validation committee. It attests the successful completion of an academic and scientific study programme in the context of specialised training leading to this validation.
