

CORP2M - Introduction

Introduction

Introduction

The Master's in Communication aims to train students, tomorrow's communicators, in communication professions. The programme enables them to acquire and develop skills in critical and strategic analysis of communication and to discover high-level professional techniques.

Objectives

- To train you in the communication professions thanks to a teaching team made up of academics and high-level professionals.
- To enable you to acquire theoretical and operational skills to be able to develop a strategic vision.
- To help you to build you an expert profile thanks to a wide choice of options.

The Master's degree is a comprehensive training to become a critical analyst and strategist of communication. It offers students the possibility to further specialise by choosing from four specialisations:

Specialisations of the Master in Communication:

Strategic Communication for Organisations (LLN)	The objectives of the "Strategic Communication of Organisations" specialisation are to train students in the issues of opinion, image and reputation in a changing world. This major aims to prepare future specialists in strategy and project management in the world of communication (https://uclouvain.be/prog-corp2m-lcorp203s)
Cultural industries studies	The aim of the "Cultural Industries Studies" major is to train students in the challenges facing the cultural industries in terms of representation, strategies and media innovations in a constantly evolving sector (https://uclouvain.be/prog-corp2m-lcorp203s).
Web strategy and communication (Mons)	The objectives of the "Web Strategy and Communication" specialisation are to train students in the media ecosystem, in particular the web, in order to be able to develop and conduct appropriate communication policies and strategies (https://uclouvain.be/prog-comm2m-mcomm302s)
Culture and communication (Mons)	The objectives of the "Culture and Communication" specialisation are to train students in the analysis of cultural productions and the implementation of communication policies and practices in the cultural sector (https://uclouvain.be/prog-comm2m-mcomm302s)

Advantages

- A tailor-made campus:
 - a particularly innovative and high-tech campus in Mons
 - an international and stimulating campus in Louvain-la-Neuve
- L'accès aux réseaux des anciens (alumni) UCLouvain et COMU

CORP2M - Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

The Master 120 in Communication trains communication specialists in various organisational, cultural, media and political fields. The students who have access to it have previously mastered the foundations and disciplinary theories of communication. The Master 120 aims to enable them to specialise in one of the major professional fields by choosing a field of study.

It offers :

- specialised training in one of the major professional fields of communication;
- a programme that combines theoretical and analytical mastery with practical training in high-level professional techniques
- an integrated approach based on projects, to be carried out individually or in groups, and case studies;
- a multidisciplinary look at the challenges of communication;
- the possibility of exercising their skills in real conditions, thanks to a field placement;
- the opportunity to spend part of their programme abroad.

On successful completion of this programme, each student is able to :

CG Competences common to the School of Communication's 120 masters courses:

- CG7 - To develop skills specific to a first concrete work experience (internship):

Les études de genre, à travers le regard de plusieurs disciplines, interrogent les conceptions à propos du couple, de la famille et de la sexualité. L'apport des études de genre permet souvent de réfléchir les multiples formes que peuvent prendre ces différentes sphères, mais aussi d'interroger et de déconstruire les approches conventionnelles et par trop monolithiques d'appréhender le(s) couple(s), la(les) famille(s), la(les) sexualité(s).

The table below lists the activities (course units, or CUs) for which there are one or more prerequisites within the programme, i.e. the programme CU for which the learning outcomes must be certified and the corresponding credits awarded by the jury before registering for that CU.

These activities are also identified in the detailed programme: their title is followed by a yellow square.

Prerequisites and student's annual programme

As the prerequisite is for CU registration purposes only, there are no prerequisites within a programme year. Prerequisites are defined between CUs of different years and therefore influence the order in which the student will be able to register for the programme's CUs.

In addition, when the jury validates a student's individual programme at the beginning of the year, it ensures its coherence, meaning that it may:

- require the student to combine registration in two separate CUs which it considers necessary from a pedagogical point of view.
- transform a prerequisite into a corequisite if the student is in the final year of a degree course.

The programme's courses and learning outcomes

For each UCLouvain training programme, a reference framework of learning outcomes specifies the skills expected of every graduate on completion of the programme. Course unit descriptions specify targeted learning outcomes, as well as the unit's contribution to reference framework of learning outcomes.

Access Requirements

Master course admission requirements are defined by the French Community of Belgium Decree of 7 November 2013 defining the higher education landscape and the academic organisation of courses.

General and specific admission requirements for this programme must be satisfied at the time of enrolling at the university.

Unless explicitly mentioned, the bachelor's, master's and licentiate degrees listed in this table or on this page are to be understood as those issued by an institution of the French, Flemish or German-speaking Community, or by the Royal Military Academy.

In the event of the divergence between the different linguistic versions of the present conditions, the French version shall prevail.

Access based on validation of professional experience

> It is possible, under certain conditions, to use one's personal and professional experience to enter a university course without having the required qualifications. However, validation of prior experience does not automatically apply to all courses. Find out more about Validation of priori experience.

Access based on application

Access based on application : access may be granted either directly or on the condition of completing additional courses of a maximum of 60 ECTS credits, or refused.

Teaching method

The Master 120 offers a dynamic and original teaching formula. The student is invited to carry out numerous educational activities, individually and in groups. These activities are subject to continuous and regular evaluation.

Many courses offer an integrated approach which is sometimes reflected in a common timetable within which the student will progress, from the same object, in the light of diverse and complementary views and practices. The student will be confronted with the views of internationally active researchers, as well as those of recognised professionals. This interweaving creates a particular pedagogical framework, based on critical analysis and involvement in the concrete world of communication and its technological, social and political issues. The courses aim at both technical performance and intellectual autonomy.

Modalities that contribute to interdisciplinarity

The specificity of information and communication sciences naturally favours interdisciplinarity. The diverse training of teachers reflects and guarantees this. In addition, students in the Master 120 programme are brought into contact with students enrolled in the Master 60 programme. The majority of these students come from various disciplines (humanities, social sciences and exact sciences, etc.). This mix ensures a real interdisciplinarity and openness necessary for Information and Communication. In addition, many interdisciplinary approaches are offered by borrowing courses from other schools or faculties, or from other universities through specific agreements.

Variety of teaching strategies (including e-learning)

Depending on the subjects taught, the pedagogy focuses on the acquisition of knowledge and analytical skills. In all cases, it aims at learning intellectual and practical autonomy. The latter will be sought more particularly in the realization of projects and work, individual and group. The use of "intelligence technologies" is one of the pillars of the pedagogy put in place: as this is a communication training course, the student is both introduced to the technologies and software appropriate to the practices of his/her sector and invited to use them in following his/her programme. Some courses or parts of courses thus exploit the possibilities of the Moodle platform or intranet sites created for this purpose.

Variety of learning situations

The student is invited to participate in classical teaching activities: ex cathedra lectures, seminars and workshops. He/she will carry out individual and group work. The student will be assessed on an ongoing basis and on an ad hoc basis in examination sessions. He/she will also be required to complete a dissertation or internship dissertation. Finally, many courses offer e-learning approaches (provision of resources and exercises, pedagogical management, sharing and collective evaluation of work).

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams. More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".

In addition to these exchange programmes, the School of Communication offers a co-degree programme with

- University of Sherbrooke (Canada): Codiplomation UCL-Sherbrooke
- University of Sherbrooke (Canada) and the University of Sciences Po Aix (France).

Possible trainings at the end of the programme

The Master 120 in communication gives access to the doctoral school in information and communication and to the Teacher Training Certificate \(upper secondary education\) - Information and Communication.
