DROI2M - Introduction

Introduction

Your programme

The master offers:

- a common base of fundamental legal subjects;
- a choice of options during the two years;
- the choice of a professional focus in the second year;
- writing a thesis;
- an internship or an exchange program (in Belgium or abroad).

DROI2M - Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

After a three-year bachelor, the programme in Master en droit has the dual objective of adding to the student's general training by teaching fundamental subjects (core courses) and providing him with specialist training in subjects more closely linked to his future professional career (focuses and optional courses). The student chooses his specialisation from the coherent set of subjects.

The balance between general training and specialised training should provide the student with the opportunity to acquire legal skills of a highly technical level, aided by skills in critical reflection.

The Master's programme is also intended to help students familiarise themselves with the world of work (internship and dissertation), broaden their linguistic skills (English courses and exchanges with KULeuven) and perfect their training abroad (Erasmus exchanges).

On successful completion of this programme, each student is able to :

1

1. GOING FURTHER

Critically apply and enrich the knowledge and skills acquired at the end of the Bachelor of Law program.

1.1.1 Use and critically enrich the knowledge and skills acquired at the end of the Bachelor of Law program, from an interdisciplinary, comparative and professional perspective.

2. MASTERING AND APPLY

Master the content of the main rules of positive Belgian law in all its branches, as well as those of European law and international law, be able to compare the essential features with some foreign systems and be able to move from the abstraction of the rule of law to the facts, even if they are presented in a complex way, and vice versa.

2.2.1. Have an up-to-date knowledge and general command of the principles, rules, theories, doctrines and case law that give substance to the various branches of law, in particular tax law and accounting law, private international law, public international law, company law, family property law, social security law and securities law.

2.2 Know and understand the influence of certain European and international standards and institutions on these different branches of law.

2.3. be familiar with a few essential features of these same branches of law in the light of certain foreign systems and master the techniques and reflexes of comparative law research in order to deepen this knowledge.

2.4. Research, read and understand legal documents written in Dutch and English.

Be able to follow a university course in one of these languages.

2.5. In one or other branch of law, be able to diagnose a complex legal problem independently and creatively, identifying the difficulties in detail, eliminating peripheral elements, and providing well-argued solutions based on in-depth research, presented in a clear summary underpinned by thorough, coherent and credible legal reasoning.

2.6. Be able to move from the abstraction of the rule of law to the concrete facts, and vice versa.

3

3. EXPLAINING AND CONVINCING

Move easily from the rule to the facts and vice versa in a discussion, communicate the results of legal research and analysis in a clear, precise, structured and well-argued manner and produce a legal study, in full compliance with the rules governing scientific production.

3.3.1. In a discussion (individual colloquium, group conversation, argumentative speech, written or oral consultation, etc.), be able to move from the abstraction of the rule of law to the concrete facts, and vice versa.

3.2 Express aloud, in a lively, structured and reasoned manner, the content of knowledge, the results of research or a legal analysis in clear, precise French appropriate to the context and the qualities of the speaker (presentation, interview, conversation, plea, etc.) and be able to do the same in writing within the deadline set.

3.3. Be able to produce, orally and in writing, a legal study supported by relevant illustrations.

3.4. Take part in a routine conversation on a legal issue of moderate difficulty in a language other than French (particularly Dutch or English).

3.5. Respect the rules governing scientific production (literal quotations, references, bibliography, etc.) in all forms of communication.

4

4. THINKING AND PARTICIPATING

Update your knowledge, see the links between the different branches of law, forge your own opinions and, where appropriate, make the most of the opportunities offered by an internship or exchange stay.

4.4.1. To update and perfect their knowledge of the various branches of law independently, and thus forge a solid general legal culture.

4.2. Identify, mobilize and express the links, bridges and extensions between the various branches of law inx4d g0049 Tmd3le TJ 1 iugdliizioapuentific pr

OPTIONS [25.0]

In the first year, the student is required to choose 15 credits from the same option. All options are annual and are taught during the second term.

In the second year, the student chooses 10 elective course credits (either two UEs of the same option, or one option UE and one UE of their purpose or another, or two UEs of their purpose, or one UE of its purpose and one UE of another purpose (from a predefined list)).

The student going on an exchange trip replaces his choice of teaching units for the second quadrimester of the second year with teaching units of his choice in his host university, up to a maximum of 15 credits and subject to the agreement of the Faculty.

DROI2M - Information

Access Requirements

Master course admission requirements are defined by the French Community of Belgium Decree of 7 November 2013 defining the higher education landscape and the academic organisation of courses.

General and specific admission requirements for this programme must be satisfied at the time of enrolling at the university.

Unless explicitly mentioned, the bachelor's, master's and licentiate degrees listed in this table or on this page are to be understood as those issued by an institution of the French, Flemish or German-speaking Community, or by the Royal Military Academy.

In the event of the divergence between the different linguistic versions of the present conditions, the French version shall prevail.
