

FILB1BA - Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

By the end of their bachelor's degree, students will have acquired :

I. General knowledge and interdisciplinary skills

- Vast general and interdisciplinary knowledge by opening up to other disciplines and understanding the connections between them

- A grounding in the fundamentals of the humanities and social sciences (principal theories, vocabulary, methods and challenges)
- The ability to build an interdisciplinary dialogue between the different humanities and social sciences and to problematise their relationship to philosophy

All general course units (CUs) and optional CUs in the humanities, e.g. Critique des sources d'information, Littératures européennes comparées, Linguistique générale, Histoire des sociétés occidentales, Sociologie; Histoire de l'art du moyen âge à nos jours, Psychologie, Religions d'occident (judaïsme, christianisme, islam) et société; Droit naturel (in French or English)

- Knowledge in areas which are complementary to philosophy

- In-depth knowledge in one or more subject areas by choosing a minor subject and learning to examine it through the lens of philosophy

All CUs in the chosen minor subject (English, Literature, History, Political Science) and the possibility to take other CUs as part of an additional bachelor's degree

II. Specialised knowledge

- Specialised knowledge in fields related to philosophy and an understanding of the challenges of the discipline

- In-depth knowledge of the major disciplines which philosophy is based on (principal theories, vocabulary, concepts, methods and challenges) and an understanding of their practice

All thematic courses introducing the major disciplines of philosophy, e.g. Philosophie morale, Métaphysique (Year 1); Philosophie de la culture et de l'histoire, Phénoménologie, Anthropologie philosophique, Epistémologie des sciences humaines (Year 2); Philosophie de l'art et de la littérature, Philosophie politique, Ethique, Logique, Philosophie du langage (Year 3)

- Expertise in the analytical methods for understanding complex reasoning as well as academic reasoning and communication skills

o Dual Bachelor's degree for the holder of a Bachelor in History

This bachelor's programme provides complementary training to the bachelor's programme in history.

It allows students to obtain the title of Bachelor of Philosophy and to enter the master's programmes in philosophy.

It is intended to give students who enrol in it the opportunity to broaden and consolidate their philosophical training. In this spirit, the courses in this programme are based on the student's bachelor's programme in history.

This programme counts 86 credits.

A student who has chosen the Letters and civilisations thematic module in the History programme may deduct the Philosophy of culture and history course (5 credits) from the dual degree programme. This programme will then count 81 credits.
