

EUAB2M - Introduction

INTRODUCTION

Introduction

This Master in EU Studies is organised by Institute for European Studies Saint-Louis and the School of European Studies.

This programme is for students who have an interest in European affairs and who have at least a university bachelor's degree in relevant fields such as law, political science, economy and history.

Classes are taught during the day on the Saint-Louis Bruxelles campus of UCLouvain.

For this programme, the students need to have a working knowledge of English (level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference).

Votre profil

You :

- Have an interest in European affairs, the functioning of the EU and its place in the world.
- Want to develop cutting-edge expertise and critical thinking on EU policies and governance.
- Want to learn from leading academics and high-level practitioners from EU institutions and the 'EU bubble'.
- Want to acquire practical skills that will help you make a difference when applying for EU-related jobs.
- Want to have a first job experience by working as an intern for a public or private organization dealing with European affairs.

Votre futur job

Graduates from this Master will be ready to work in public or private organisations and bodies connected to European affairs. They will hold positions as advisers, representatives, or managers in:

- International, European, national, regional or local administration and institutions.
- NGOs and European associations, professional associations.
- Consultancy offices and lobbying firms.

Votre programme

This master's programme is characterised by:

- A practice-oriented approach. Based in Brussels, it will put students in contact with EU affairs practitioners (EU institutions, NGOs, law firms, etc.)
- A strong interdisciplinary focus. This programme provides students with a critical understanding of European policies and governance through strongly integrated interdisciplinary modules.

COMPÉTENCES ET ACQUIS AU TERME DE LA FORMATION

For each UCLouvain training programme, a reference framework of learning outcomes specifies the skills expected of every graduate upon completion of the programme. Course unit descriptions specify targeted learning outcomes, as well as the unit's contribution to the reference framework of learning outcomes.

Students enrolled on the Master [120] in EU Studies will become experts in EU affairs, combining a in-depth knowledge of the EU's governance model, an ability to critically analyse key EU policies and the practical know-how to be quickly operational in EU-related jobs.

Upon completion of the Master in EU Studies, graduates will be able to:

- Describe and explain the EU's economic, political, legal and historical foundations and governing principles
- Develop a critical and expert opinion on key challenges facing the EU (climate change, artificial intelligence, migration, threats to the rule of law, etc.)
- Understand, analyse and evaluate major EU policies (trade, environment, defence and security, migration, etc.)
- Write policy papers and develop advocacy/lobbying strategies
- Apply for and manage EU funding
- Boast a first job (internship) experience

STRUCTURE DU PROGRAMME

The first year of this programme consists of 300 hours of lectures over two semesters, as well as two practice-oriented seminars. The second year consists of 180 hours of lectures, only in the first semester. The second semester is made up of an internship, or alternatively (and exceptionally) to the writing of a master thesis (30 credits).
