GAEN2MC - Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

The programme's courses and learning outcomes

For each UCLouvain training programme, a reference framework of learning outcomes specifies the the skills expected of every graduate on completion of the programme. Course unit descriptions specify targeted learning outcomes, as well as the unit's contribution to reference framework of learning outcomes.

GAEN2MC - Information

Access Requirements

In the event of the divergence between the different linguistic versions of the present conditions, the French version shall prevail.

Decree of 7 November 2013 defining the landscape of higher education and the academic organization of studies.

The admission requirements must be met prior to enrolment in the University.

Unless explicitly stated in the Bachelor's thesis, the student must not be a holder of a degree in medicine or a related field as of 1 October 2024.

The Royal Decree of the 30.05.2002, relating to the planning of the medical offer for the public, published on 14.06.2002, applies to those candidates wishing to obtain the title of Specialist Doctor in Cardiology (those candidates are thus counted among the general practitioner candidates or specialists in the context of the numerus clausus).

Second part

- Candidates must have satisfied the requirements of the first exam of the specialised study degree in Internal Medicine. Admission procedures

Applications for admission must be addressed to the academic supervisor. The organisation of the entrance selection tests is arranged in accordance with the calendar and the general examination rules and regulations.

Specific professional rules

These studies lead to a professional title subject to specific rules or restrictions on professional accreditation or establishment.

You will find the necessary legal information by clicking here.

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams. More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".

Semestrial clinical evaluations : these evaluations are established (in writing) by the practical training supervisor for each candidate and focus on different items. The evaluations of all of the candidates are reviewed during the two semestrial meetings by the ensemble of the practical training supervisors.

First part

At the end of these three years of training, each candidate will be evaluated during the course of an interview aimed at testing his general knowledge in internal medicine. Further to the application of the Royal Decree of 16 March, 1999, at the end of the first two years of the training programme, the candidate will apply for an attestation proving that he has successfully accomplished a specific university training course.

Second part

The writing and presentation, before the committee, of a thesis (20-25 pages) drafted in the form of a scientific article, destined for publication, in relation with a subject linked to Gastroenterology. Upon fulfilment of the above-described training requirements, the teaching committee will award the academic title in Gastroenterology.

This title does not replace official recognition by the ministerial validation committee. It attests to the successful completion of an academic and scientific study programme in the context of specialised training leading to this validation.
