

ADPM2M - Introduction

Introduction

Introduction

The Public Administration course focuses on public policy, local authority and socio-economic development. It equips the student with transferable analytical abilities, methods for in-depth understanding and the resources needed to participate in new public decision-making, in all government positions, public and parastatal organisations, at local or European level.

ADPM2M - Information

Access Requirements

Master course admission requirements are defined by the French Community of Belgium Decree of 7 November 2013 defining the higher education landscape and the academic organisation of courses.

General and specific admission requirements for this programme must be satisfied at the time of enrolling at the university.

Unless explicitly mentioned, the bachelor's, master's and licentiate degrees listed in this table or on this page are to be understood as those issued by an institution of the French, Flemish or German-speaking Community, or by the Royal Military Academy.

In the event of the divergence between the different linguistic versions of the present conditions, the French version shall prevail.

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams. More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".

There is a variety of evaluation methods:

- completion of individual and/or group work;
- taking written or oral examinations to test the level of understanding and command of concepts, theories, basic data and know-how in the various disciplines concerned;
- completing a three-month work placement;
- completion of a thesis.

To obtain a grade average, the scores obtained for the different activities are weighted by their respective credits.

Possible trainings at the end of the programme

Doctoral programmes : Doctoral school in political science or any other doctoral school certified by the Graduate
