Introduction

SPOM2M1 - Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

Political sciences seeks to understand and analyse political and public life. The discipline focuses on two elements:

- understanding public life, power games and legitimacy, the organisation of local to regional, and national to international government;
- mastering the analytical tools that make it possible to act on the operating modes of implemented policies.

Programme structure

The Master's [60] in Political Sciences includes core courses for 30 credits focusing on political sciences, international relations and public policy. The final dissertation accounts for the remaining 15 credits.

There are numerous opportunities for internships and travel abroad, in Europe or elsewhere, easing the student's integration into the workplace. Courses are also taught in foreign languages by visiting professors.
